

SUMMER READING LIST - 2011
MIDDLE AND SENIOR SCHOOL

We ask all students entering Grades 6-12 in September to read two to three books during the summer. The purpose of this reading is to encourage a love of reading. Students will not be required to write an essay about their reading this fall, rather class discussions of books read will take place.

The following list offers some suggestions for students' reading choices. We strongly recommend that students and their parents set aside the time to select books that will appeal to the student and are at a comfortable reading level. The reading levels are somewhat arbitrary; senior students may enjoy Kenneth Oppel's bat series and younger readers may prefer to read a book on the senior list. Students may read another work written by the suggested authors.

Publication dates follow the titles of more recently published books.

Many of these books are available through the Ottawa Public Library or can be purchased at the many book stores in the Ottawa area. We recommend the Librairie du Soleil in the Byward Market for French books.

We are always looking for outstanding books to add to our Summer Reading List. Please give your suggestions to Mrs. Clubine or e-mail her at clubine@elmwood.on.ca and include the title, author, year of publication and age level.

International Baccalaureate candidates who are entering Grade 11 or 12 in September can get a head start by reading the following texts for English during the summer:
