Re: French Theatre Field Trip

Dear Parents/Guardians:

On Wednesday, November 9, 2011, Grade 9 – 12 French students have the opportunity to attend a wonderful presentation of French theatre. The performance is called “Afghanistan” and it is being presented by the Théâtre La Catapulte, on King Edward Street. Students will leave for the performance by bus at 12:30 p.m. returning at 2:30 p.m. (students will eat their lunches just before boarding the bus).

The play centers on the story of two unmarried teenagers living in Ottawa, Jim and Axelle, who meet and fall in love. Jim must leave soon to join the army in defence of his country, leaving behind Axelle and their unborn child. Further information about the production can be found at the theatre’s web site:

<http://www.catapulte.ca/>.

To accommodate our Core French students, the theatre will provide English subtitles. The cost of attending the performance is $17 and will be billed directly to your account.

Please indicate your permission for your daughter to participate in this trip by completing the accompanying form and returning it to Mme. Abada by November 4, 2011.

If you have any questions about the performance, please do not hesitate to contact your daughter’s French teacher.

Sincerely,

Laila Abada
